THE CASE OF SENATOR PATTERSON.— It appears that the case of Mr. Patterson, whose expulsion was recommended by the Senate committee on Oredit Mobilier corruptions, has been confided to the tender mercies of the new Senate. Now tender mercies of the new Senate. Now that Mr. Patterson is no longer a Senator, it is a matter of some interest, to know how that body will act upon the recommendation.

A MIGHIGAN clergyman wrote to a lot-tery agent: "I don't approve of lotteries; I regard them as no better than gambling schemes. My son bought ticket No. 5 in your drawing, but if it drew anything don't send the money to him-send it to me." The clergyman will probably feel releved to learn that the ticket didn't draw anything.

There is great excitement.
Washington, March 5.— The following dispatch was received last night by Marshal Packard from Governor Kellogg: "NEW ORLEANS, March 5.

"New Orleans, March 5.

"An armed mob of several hundreds attacked the police station and court building. We had about 100 police, who repulsed the mob, driving them of, and, it is reported, killing and wounding sevieral of them. General Badger came upon their rear, capturing and disarming a large number. The police stations are filling up with prisoners. A company of troops came up just after the mob was driven off. They are scattering to their hemes. The mob was distinctly ordered to disperse before there was any firing. The attack was commenced by them."

—Wednesday night's train from Balti-more, on the Northern Central railroad, was wrecked twelve miles south of Har-risburg, by a broken rail: Two passen-ger cars were thrown from the track, one against the hill, the other over an embankment. The stoves fell through the floor into the snow, thus preventing the wreck from taking fire. Three or four passengers were hurt, but none seriously except one man from Michigan who had his ribs broken. -The Board of Examiners for the Treasury Department will hold a series of examinations, beginning on the 24th inst., for the purpose of filling forty vacancies in the Clerkship Class, one now existing in that Department. Applications will be received.

-The Republican Senators held a caucus yesterday at which Messrs Siew-ert, Conkling, Edmunds, Scott, and West, were appointed a Committee to revise the membership of the Senate standing Com-mittees, and report to the adjourned meeting of the caucus to morrow.

—A freight train running west on the Pennsylvania railroad, Wednesday, col-lided with a locomotive standing by itself on the same track at Portage station both engines and portion of the train was badly wrecked. The enginer of the freight locomotive named George Balls was in-stantly killed and a brakeman named Patrick Darby, has since died.

—Thiers has recognized the belligerent rights of the Carlists in Spain. The im-pression grows in London that Don Car-los will succeed. It is rumored that the Carlist leaders intend to raise a loan. -A man named Bennett, brother of the proprietors of Bennett, Moore & Co.'s mills, at Tolona, Illinois, was caught in the belting of the machinery, yesterday and drawn three times through a space only eight inches wide between the shaft and the ceiling and terribly crushed and mangled. -While deputy sheriff Thompson and officer Walters, of DeKalb county, Mo., ware attempting to arrest Wm Groomer, last Monday, several friends of Groomer resisted the process and Walters was shot and killed and a little boy severely wounded. -John G. Saxe lectured at Memphis
